

GRANDE PROVENCE

— 1694 —

Heritage Wine Estate

FRANSCHHOEK · SOUTH AFRICA

French Huguenots founded Grande Provence Estate over 300 years ago in the wonderfully lush, fertile valley of Franschhoek – now considered to be heartland South African wine country. Today heritage and contemporary chic merge within a complex of historic Cape Dutch buildings at Grande Provence – offering guests superb accommodation at The Owner's Cottage, culinary excellence at The Restaurant, award-winning wines at The Tasting Room and both established and emerging artists at The Gallery and The Sculpture Garden.

