

NEWSLETTER - DECEMBER 2013

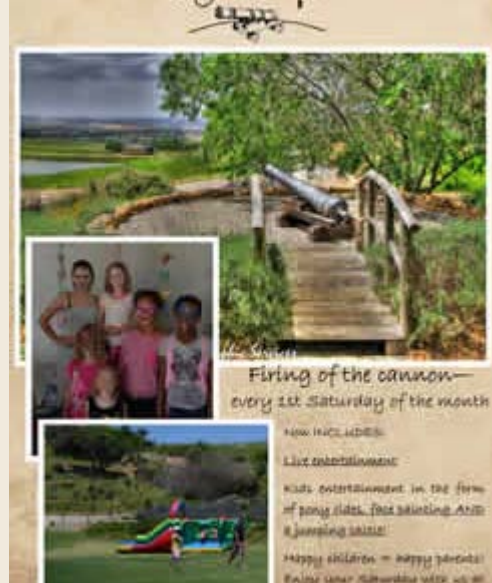

As the shot of the Signal Gun echoes through the vineyards of our picturesque farm, just off the Viessershok Road in Durbanville, it signals the start of a new generation of wine making.

Owned by the 5th generation De Wit family, we pride ourselves in making small quantities of fine wine from our carefully selected grapes.

Be assured that the tasteful memories of our wines will keep on echoing.

Firing of the cannon ...

As of the 7th of December, which is the first Saturday of the month when we fire off our 300 year old 6 pounder cannon, we will be including entertainment for young and old to ring in the new month. Vernon from Jamrock Theatre will provide live entertainment from 11am until 2pm and we'll have entertainment for your children in the form of pony rides, face painting and a jumping castle. Bring the family and make a day of it!

New wine releases ...

Sea Smoke Sauvignon Blanc 2013

A wet winter and dry, hot summer resulted in ideal conditions for a great yield. The Sea Smoke vineyard is a single vineyard block which is 455 m above sea level and the highest in the Durbanville area. Relatively low yield and lots of cool mist in the evenings (Sea Smoke) results in a long, evenly ripening process.

TASTING NOTES:
An intensely flavoured, single vineyard Sauvignon Blanc with hints of green pepper and flint with a beautiful elegant mouth feel.

FOOD SUGGESTIONS:
Mussels, marinated grilled prawns, smoked chicken and salmon, roast vegetables, sole, paella, trout & salad nicoise

Tin Hill Mui Scattie 2013

TASTING NOTES:
This is an off-dry white wine with aromas of fruit such as litchi and muskaat on the nose, with an elegant acidity on the palate.

BLEND:
60% Hanepoot / 40% Sauvignon Blanc

AGEING POTENTIAL:
This 2013 Mui Scattie is made for early enjoyment and can be kept for a further 2 years from date of harvest.
