

LAUNCHING TALENT - YOUTH TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT IN THE CAPE WINELANDS

STUDENT APPLICATIONS – WINE SECTOR PROGRAMME

Dear Applicant

PYDA (the Pinotage Youth Development Academy), based in Stellenbosch, develops young, talented South Africans for employment within the wine and fruit industries and related sectors, such as tourism.

The Programme

The curriculum is custom-designed and combines technical wine skills covering the whole value chain, as well as personal development and life skills. The learning will be experiential, with a combination of practical placements and classroom learning.

This programme is for 25 students and will run full-time for 12 months from October 2016 until September 2017.

We are calling for applications from talented and committed students who must be:

Yes	No	Are you?
		18-25 years of age
		South African
		Unemployed or in casual employment
		Able to demonstrate the commitment to bring about change
		Able to communicate in English
		Able to travel to Stellenbosch on a daily basis
		Able to demonstrate financial need
		Able to prove you have passed Grade 12 (matric)
		Historically disadvantaged

At the end of their year successful students will ...

- Be work ready
- Be able to seek permanent employment in the wine industry and related sectors
- Receive a qualification endorsed by Winetech (the body responsible for coordinating research, training and technology transfer in the Wine industry )
- Be able to create a sustainable economic income
- Positively influence their families and communities

The learning could also act as a bridge into further education, an internship within the industry or the creation of a business.

Should you believe you are a good candidate and are able to fully commit to the programme, please complete the attached application form.
